

St. Anthony vs. Chaminade

A male swimmer with dark hair and goggles is captured mid-stroke in a swimming pool. He is wearing a blue swimsuit and has a determined expression with his mouth open. The water is a vibrant blue-green, and there is a significant splash around his head and shoulders. In the foreground, the edge of the pool is visible, featuring a row of red and yellow lane line floats.

FRIARS

A swimmer is captured in motion, swimming on their back in a pool. They are wearing a black swim cap with the word "FRIARS" printed in bold, yellow, sans-serif capital letters. The swimmer's head and shoulders are above water, and their arms are extended back. The water is a deep teal color, and there is a significant splash of white water around the swimmer's head. In the foreground, a lane line consisting of alternating yellow and red floats is visible, slightly out of focus. The background shows more of the pool and other lane lines.
