

ST. ANTHONY'S vs. MSGR. FARRELL

Sunday, January 28, 2007

A group of young men, likely swimmers, are standing in a line, facing away from the camera. They are wearing various styles of swim trunks and briefs. Some of the visible text on their swimwear includes "UNA MASS" and "ST. ANTHONY'S". The background is a plain wall, and there are large red and white triangular flags hanging in the foreground, partially obscuring the view. The overall scene suggests a swim meet or competition.
